

‘Tis the Season for Gift Giving

Ministry Partners

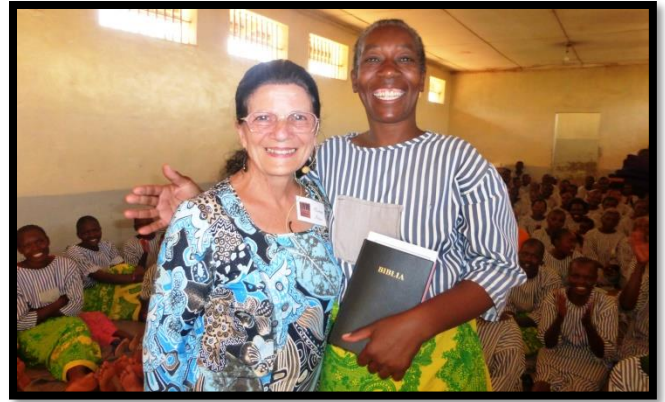

Dec. 2017

The giving season is officially upon us and you will be celebrating with our family and friends. It is a time set aside to be thankful for all God’s blessings, especially the precious gift of the Savior of the world, Jesus Christ, who died on the cross as payment for our sins. He paid the debt for our sins that no man could ever pay for themselves, thereby reconciling everyone who believes to God, the Father. (II Corinthians 5:21)

As you begin this time of giving gifts to your family and friends, would you also consider giving the gift of a Bible and Discipleship Booklet to someone less fortunate?

It is not possible to express the joy we see on the faces of villagers and prisoners in the Great Lakes Region of Africa while distributing them or the delight it brings the IRM team when there are enough Bibles for everyone. These are priceless gifts to those who could never afford to purchase them.

Bibles are prayed over before they are distributed to villagers and prisoners.

Have a wonderful Christmas and “Thank You” for partnering with IRM’s efforts to provide Bibles and Discipleship materials for the villagers and prisoners of the Great Lakes Region of Africa.

That none would be lost,

Arlene
