Rev. Arlene Tatum

Ministry Partners,

Jan. 2023

As 2023 arrived it brought the time to begin making preparations for IRM's 19th ministry trip to the Great Lakes Region in Africa. As I type those words I am reminded again of God's faithfulness to me personally and to this ministry. That is exactly what God said to me in November 2022 when I contemplated the upcoming 2023 year, "Remember my faithfulness." I remember God's faithfulness from last year, I remember your generous giving of $74,500 and then watching the Holy Spirit bringing 25,425 to salvation. Goodness, do you see as I do that the cost was only $2.93 per soul! Less than the cost of a fancy cup of coffee. Thank you for your continuing partnership with IRM as we follow God's lead in sharing the Gospel.

In addition, every year since 2005 we have watched God's faithfulness as he provided absolutely everything we needed. He did this through your financial gifts to the General Fund and Bible sets, with favor with government administrators, new opportunities, health and safety, as well as the amazing opportunity to watch the Holy Spirit add 158,891 to the Lamb's Book of Life.

Pastors Aaron and Arlene at Kitale Main Prison

IRM Vice-President, Doctor Alfred Mupenzi has already been in communication with our partner pastors in Uganda and a Tanzanian pastor concerning our next missionary trip. In addition, I must say I am excited for the new opportunity to do prison and village ministry in Tanzania. We realize that we need to be flexible as we look towards the next trip, depending on the Lord's leading. We would appreciate your prayers concerning this.

"I'm happy today because I just received Jesus as my Savior."

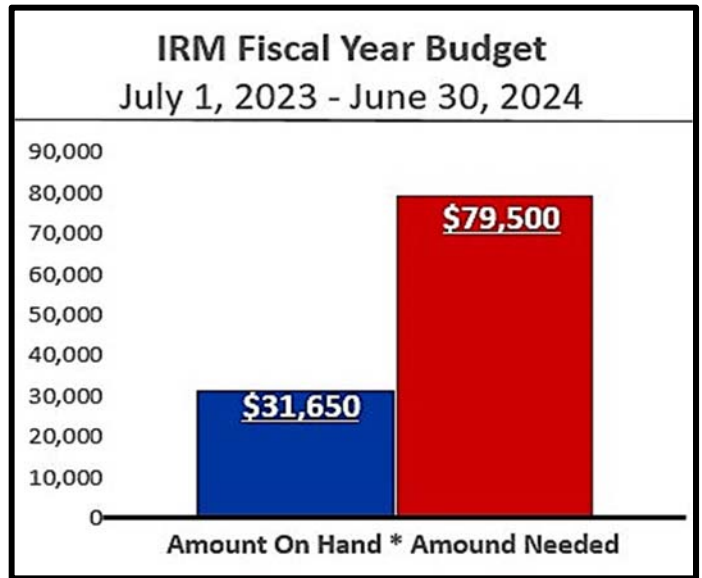

Please consider joining with IRM in another year of ministry with this 19th trip to Africa and as we also continue to do ministry here in America as God opens the doors. Together we can accomplish much for the kingdom of God.

The fields really are ripe for the harvest.

THANK YOU for your partnership.

That none would be lost,

Arlene

He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.” Mark 16:15
